PREFACE

A Table of vital statistics for this Derr family is provided at the end of this story. It is based on a listing of family members provided by Amanda Schlick. As subsequent census reports, marriage records, obituaries, draft registration cards, etc., provided different data, the table was revised. The table contains data beyond that necessary for this Chesapeake and Ohio Canal family history in hopes it will be useful to others doing research; Amanda Schlick has done most of that research. This is a work in progress and new information would be most welcome.

Amanda Schlick (amandaschlick@gmail.net) has contributed considerable research to this report, beyond the family statistics, many thanks. This 2nd revision now includes the research of Valerie Brooke Stephens (v.brooke.stephens@gmail.com), granddaughter of Mary B. Derr Phenix, many thanks.

We hope the readers will find the story interesting and contact one of us with additional information or corrections. While I was doing that, I also added information about the family, beyond the Canal, for other researchers.

From History of Western Maryland, we learn that Magdalena Derr died July 19, 1822, aged 25; Abraham Derr died May 11, 1829, aged 62; Elizabeth Derr died Nov. 13, 1822, aged 55; and Jacob Derr born Nov. 12, 1788 died Dec. 23, 1819.<sup>1</sup> After Abraham S. Derr died in 1829 we read that "James Raymond, trustee, advertises sale of land of Abraham Derr, near Taneytown."<sup>2</sup>

Abraham S. Derr (b. 1793) was a private in Capt. John F. Ruhes 5th Co., 2nd Regiment, Light Dragoons, Pennsylvania Troops, 1814. No source given.

The last child of Abraham S. and Anna Mary Derr, Emanuel Derr, was born on Mar. 25, 1833 and christened at the German Reformed Church, Frederick, Maryland, on Aug. 24, 1833.

The 1850 census reported Abraham [S.] Derr, age 57, a farmer with real estate valued at $1,000 was living in District 5, Frederick County, Md.<sup>3</sup> Living with him were: Mary, age 60, wife; Matilda, age 21, daughter; Sarah, age 19, daughter; and Emanuel, age 17, son. Anna Mary C. Derr had eleven children, one had died in infancy, and by 1850 seven had already left the home farm.

On Feb. 3, 1855 Abraham S. Derr died and was buried in the Jacobs Church Cemetery, Fountain Dale, Adams County, Pennsylvania. His spouse was Anna Mary Cover Derr. His obituary remains to be found.

The 1860 census reported William Bell, age 45, a farmer with real estate valued at $5,500 living in Creagerstown.<sup>4</sup> Living with him were: Mary [Anna Derr], age 45, wife; Susan, age 20, daughter; Eliza, age 18, daughter; John, age 16, son, a Laborer; Mary, age 14, daughter; Rebecca, age 12, daughter; Benjamin, age 10, son; Margaret, age 8, daughter; George, age 3, son; and two apparently unrelated persons.

The 1860 census reported Emanuel S. Derr, age 27, with a personal estate valued at $5,000 was working as a Toll Gate Keeper, Sharpsburg, Md.<sup>5</sup> Living with him were: Mary, age 26, wife; Henry, age 6, son; and John, age 4/12, son. The road from Sharpsburg, Md. to Shepherdstown, W. Va. was a toll road. In the adjacent house lived Stephen P. Grove, age 41, a farmer with real estate valued at $11,000 and a personal estate valued at $4,000. Looking at the 1877 Washington County Map for Sharpsburg, District 1, we see the S. P. Grove residence located just outside the Sharpsburg city limits, on the road to Shepherdstown. While the map was drawn 17 years after the 1860 census was taken, it supports the toll house being close to Sharpsburg rather than near the bridge.

The Civil War began on April 12, 1861.

During August 1863, eligible men had to register for the Civil War Draft; Emanuel Derr, age 30, a miller, married, was living in Sharpsburg.<sup>6</sup> He had a crooked leg.

The Civil War ended on April 9, 1865.

In 1869 a newspaper reporting on the Circuit Court for Washington County, Appeal Docket, reported: No. 26. Jacob H. Grove vs. Emanuel Derr. - Appeal from Justice Snyder. Submitted. Judgment reversed for appellee for $1.83 and costs. T. H. Grove and Schley for appellant; Blackford and Syester for appellee.<sup>7</sup>

The 1870 census reported Emanuel Derr, age 35, a Lock Tender on Canal [Lock 38], was living in District 1 [Sharpsburg], Washington Cty., Md.<sup>8</sup> Living with him were: Mary E., age 34, wife; Henry A., age 15, son; Charles W., age 9, son; Annie L., age 8, daughter; and Veny O., age 4, son. In the adjacent house lived Benjamin F. Graves, age 36, a farmer with real estate valued at $18,000 and a personal estate valued at $3,5000. Looking at the same 1877 Washington County Map for Sharpsburg, District 1, we see the B. F. Graves residence located about half-way between Sharpsburg and Bridgeport. While the map was drawn 7 years after the 1870 census was taken, it supports the lock Emanuel Derr tended was Lock 38, at Bridgeport.

On Mar. 1, 1873, George W. Knode registered the Canal Boat Willie & Annie, hailing out of Shepherdstown, W. Va.<sup>9</sup> The canal boat was built by Weld & Sheridan in Cumberland, Md. in 1872. At that time, 1873, George W. Knode had only one child; thus, the canal boat was not named after his children. However, Emanuel Derr had five children, one named Charles William and one named Annie. It would appear that Emanuel Derr paused in tending lock and became a canal boat captain starting in 1873, leaving Cumberland as follows:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Round-trip Days
4/23	Individual	Antietam
5/5	Individual	Antietam	12
5/15	New Central Coal Co.	Georgetown	10
7/1	Individual	Antietam
7/9	Individual	Antietam	8
7/15	Maryland Coal Co.	Antietam	4

9/25	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	9
11/3	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown
11/12	Blaen Avon Coal Co.	Shepherdstown	9

There are some gaps in the voyages. He could have returned to lock-tending, the data could be incomplete; we just don't have an explanation.

<sup>9</sup> All canal boat data may be verified from www.candocanal.org/histdocs/index.html.

Moving on to 1874 we found the following Willie & Annie departures from Cumberland:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Round-trip Days
7/13	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown
7/20	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	7
7/29	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	9
8/7	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	9
9/15	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown
10/6	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown
10/20	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	14
11/3	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	14
11/17	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	14

We do not have an explanation as to why Willie & Annie started so late in the 1874 season.

1875 was another strange season with the Willie & Annie departing Cumberland as follows:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Round-trip Days
11/11	Consolidation Coal Co.	Alexandria
11/23	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	12

In the year, 1876, Capt. Derr on Willie and Annie departed Cumberland with coal as follows:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Round-trip Days
5/29	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown
6/16	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	17
7/8	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	22
7/31	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	22
8/23	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	23
10/6	New Central Coal Co.	Georgetown
10/27	Alexandria Gas Works	Alexandria	21
11/10	Sinclair & Agnew	Alexandria	14
11/23	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	13
		Average	19

The absence of any trips in September remains unexplained. He could have left lock tending duties to Mary and Henry A. and took up freighting coal to bring in extra money, returning to Lock 38 for the busy month of September. Notice that when he re-started in October, he freighted for a variety of companies; Mr. Knode could have been directing that based on who had coal on-hand when the boat arrived in Cumberland. We don't know.

In 1877 Emanuel Derr and George W. Knode traded-off captaining the Willie & Annie as the following table shows:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Boat Captain	Round-trip Days
4/3	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Knode
4/13	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Knode	10
4/24	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Derr	11

11/10	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Knode	11
11/22	Maryland Coal Co.	Washington	Derr	12
		Average		10

The record does not show any freighting for Willie & Annie during July, 1877. Other boats did continue freighting through July, 1877. The boat only freighted for the Maryland Coal Company in 1877 and usually went to Georgetown.

In 1878 the canal boat Willie & Annie was taken by Capt. Warner until the August 20 departure:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Boat Captain	Round-trip Days
5/2	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner
5/13	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner	11
5/21	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner	8
6/1	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner	11
6/12	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner	11
6/25	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Warner	13

11/19	Maryland Coal Co.	Washington	Derr	8
11/28	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	Derr	9
		Average		11

It would appear that Capt. Warner was just as fast as Capt. Derr. There must have been some other basis for changing Captains. On the May 2 departure Capt. Warner also took the canal boat Dr. Grimes but never afterwards and he was not listed for any boat after the July 30 departure; perhaps he left boating. Captain Derr was only listed with the Willie & Annie.

The 1879 Capt. Derr departed Cumberland with the S. H. Sherman:

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Boat
10/29	George's Creek Coal Co.	Georgetown	S. H. Sherman
11/17	Blaen Avon Coal Co.	Georgetown	S. H. Sherman
11/24	J. P. Agnew & Co.	Georgetown	S. H. Sherman
12/2	Blaen Avon Coal Co.	Georgetown	S. H. Sherman
12/11	George's Creek Coal Co.	Georgetown	S. H. Sherman

In 1880 Capt. Derr usually departed with the canal boat George W. Knode, but occasionally took the canal boats Harry & Ralph, Leander N. Lovell or P. Notice also that Capt. Derr freighted coal from companies other than Maryland Coal Company.

Date	Coal Company	Destination	Boat	Round-trip Days
4/8	Individual	Shepherdstown	George W. Knode
5/27	Consolidation	Georgetown	George W. Knode	49
6/5	Consolidation	Georgetown	George W. Knode	9

11/18	Piedmont C. & I.	Alexandria	Leander N. Lovell	6
11/24	Maryland Coal Co.	Georgetown	George W. Knode	6

At the start of the 1880 boating season, the boatmen struck for higher wages. Boatmen who tried to leave Cumberland prior to the strike being settled, were attacked at the wharves. In any event, Capt. Derr remained active freighting coal, even departing with two boats on two occasions.

Any reference to Capt. Derr was not found in 1881. Perhaps he stopped boating.

All the above data was transcribed from a Cumberland newspaper; not every edition was found and every edition found, did not have information on the canal. There were interruptions to navigation due to breaks in the canal or strikes by the miners or canal boat captains.

Sometime in the 1870s Margaret E. Derr married George Renner and the family lived in Woodsboro, Frederick County, Md. The 1880 census reported George Renner, age 30, a Laborer, living in Woodsboro.<sup>10</sup> Living with him were: Margaret [Derr], age 28, wife; William, age 6, son; Elsie, age 6/12, daughter; and John C. Derr, age 16, Brother-in-law, a Laborer.

In 1891 we read: "Deaths, On May 21, at Lewistown, Daisy U., wife of George McMiller and daughter of John C. Derr, ages 23 years."<sup>11</sup>

In 1894 a newspaper had the obituary: "Mrs. RACHEL [ne. She was in her seventy-seventh year. She was a member of Zion Reformed church for a number of years.

"The following children survive her: Mrs. Ziegler, Leitersburg district; John, Baltimore; Mrs. Sarah Hartman, Waynesboro; Mrs. Harriet Trovinger, this county; Mrs. Fannie V. Martin, Abram and William, this city.

"Funeral Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock; services in Zion Reformed church, by Rev. J. Spangler Kieffer; burial in Rose Hill."<sup>12</sup>

The 1900 census reported John C. Derr, age 35, married 12 years, a Day Laborer, living in Creagerstown.<sup>13</sup> Living with him were: Annie S., age 38, she had seven children six of whom were then still living; Russell H., age 10, son; Clarence E., age 8, son; Claude C., age 7 son; Norma K., age 6, daughter; Bruce W., age 6, son; and Roland G., age 1, son.

Derr, age 46, married 23 years, a Railroad Conductor living in Hagerstown.<sup>14</sup> Living with him were: Mary J., age 43, wife, she had six children four of whom were then living; Lilly L. Derr, age 16, daughter; Mary B., age 13, daughter; Richard H., age 11, son; and Ruth O., age 7, daughter.

The 1900 census reported Vernon O. Derr, age 32, a Railroad Brakeman, was living in Hagerstown.<sup>15</sup> Living with him was Catharyn, age 24, wife, married five years, no children.

In 1903 Charles W. Derr was living at 211 High Street, Hagerstown and working as a laborer.<sup>16</sup> Vernon O. Derr was living at 11 Norway, Street, Hagerstown, and working as a conductor.<sup>17</sup>

On Nov. 4, 1904, Charles W. Derr died. His obituary reads:

"CHARLES W. DERR

"He Succumbs to Attack of Diabetes, Aged 44 Years.

"Charles W. Derr died at his home, corner of Locust street and Randolph avenue, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock of diabetes, aged 44 years. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Baker, and two sons - Charles O. and Worthy W., this city. Two brothers, Henry and V. O. On June 18, 1905, Vernon Derr died. His obituary reads:

” CONDUCTOR VERNON DERR,

"Of the night train, resided at No. 11 Norway avenue and was 36 years old. At the time of the accident, Mr. Derr was riding on the engine. A rule of the W. M. requires conductors of freight trains to ride on the engines. He had been in the employ of the road for four years, was a native of Virginia, came here ten years ago and engaged in the saloon and restaurant business. He lived in the West for a short time. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors and Shield of Honor and is survived by his wife who was a Miss Neisley, near here, and daughter, Catherine. His wife is completely prostrated by grief. He is survived by a brother, Henry Derr, a conductor on the N. & W., and a step-brother, Lafayette Derr, this city."<sup>19</sup>

In 1908 Henry A. Derr was living at 527 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown and working as a conductor.<sup>20</sup> Katherine Derr (widow of Vernie) was living at 11 Norway Avenue, Hagerstown.<sup>21</sup> Living with her was Miss Mary B. Derr.

A granddaughter states that four children were still living in 1910: daughter Lillie, daughter, Mary B., son Richard and daughter Ruth. Lillie had married in 1906 and left the household. Daughter Mary B. would marry in December 1910 and would soon leave the household. The correct age and years married have been provide above. In 1910 Henry A. Derr was still living at 527 W. Franklin Street, Hagerstown and working as a [Norfolk & Western] conductor.<sup>24</sup> Living with him was Richard H. Derr, working as a printer at The Herald, and Miss Ruth E. Derr.

Their daughter, Lillie L. Derr, had married Fred H. Kremer sometime in 1906. The 1910 census reported Fred H. Kremer, age 26, Married 4 years, a Retail Merchant, Meat Market, living in Hagerstown.<sup>25</sup> Living with him were: Lillie D. Potomac St., residence at 234 Summit Ave.<sup>26</sup>

World War I came along and eligible men had to register for the draft:

Richard Hilery Derr, age 27, born Aug. 20, 1889, and living at 29 E Avenue, Hagerstown, Md.<sup>31</sup> He was a Linotype Operator for Baltimore News of Baltimore, Md. He was married with one child, 6 years old. He was short, of slender build, gray eyes and brown hair.
